Explore the stunning Enchanted Valley for a 5-day adventure including 3 days, 2 nights backpacking.

Itinerary

5 DAYS, 4 NIGHTS

Day 1- Welcome!

Meet in Seattle and transfer 3 1/2 hours to Olympic National Park's Lake Quinnault, where we will camp for night 1. Here, we will cover Gear Familiarization, Safety Briefing, Leave No Trace principles, and what to expect on your backpacking trip. Then we'll have our welcome dinner and group meet-and-greet.

Day 2-4 Backpack!

We'll have a hearty breakfast looking out over Lake Quinnault and then head up to our trailhead just a short drive from the lake. We'll hike along the Quinnault River and enjoy views at every turn. We'll enjoy the sounds of the river as we set up camp. The next day, we'll leave our camp standing to hike to the incredible Enchanted Valley. We'll eat lunch in the valley, spotting the waterfalls all around us as we take in this amazing landscape. We'll bid farewell to the Valley and hike back out to our standing campsite for our final night camping along the river. The next morning, we'll hike back to our trailhead and enjoy some lunch overlooking Lake Quinnault one last time!

Day 4- A Proper Send-Off!

As we will wake up at a remote backcountry campsite, we'll end the day in the Emerald City! After our hike out, we'll return to Seattle (3 1/2 hours) where we'll arrive at our beautiful Lodge-style hotel. After we're refreshed, we will head out for our Farewell Dinner, where we'll experience a taste of true Seattle in an incredible setting, recounting our time with our new friends out in the beautiful wild. This farewell dinner is not to be missed, and will likely become a memorable part of your trip.
