Olympic National Park

2022 Trip Guide

Dates: June 13-17, 2022.

July 18-22, 2022

Explore the wild Olympic Coast for a 5-day adventure including 3 days, 2 nights backpacking.

Itinerary

5 DAYS, 4 NIGHTS

Day 1- Welcome!

Meet in Seattle and transfer 3 1/2 hours to Sol Due Campground in beautiful Olympic National Park. Here, we will cover Gear Familiarization, Safety Briefing, Leave No Trace principles, and what to expect on your backpacking trip. Then we'll have our welcome dinner and group meet-and-greet.

Day 2-4 Backpack!

We'll time our hike with the tides as we venture up the wild Olympic Coast. We'll hike on and off the beach, climb rope ladders, see incredible wildlife, and take in the giant monoliths. We'll set up our campsite for 2 nights and enjoy an incredible west coast sunset. The next day, we'll leave our camp set up and day hike to our lunch spot at the amazing tide pools. We'll spend our second and last night in the backcountry watching another beautiful sunset. Then, on the morning of Day 4, we'll pack up camp and hike back out, timing our trek again with the tides.

Itinerary

5 DAYS, 4 NIGHTS

Day 4- A Proper Send-Off!

As we will wake up at a remote backcountry campsite, we'll end the day in the Emerald City! After our hike out, we'll return to Seattle (3 1/2 hours) where we'll arrive at our beautiful Lodge hotel. After we're refreshed, we will head out for our Farewell Dinner, where we'll experience a taste of Seattle in an intimate setting, recounting our time with our new friends out in the beautiful wild. This farewell dinner is not to be missed, and will likely become a memorable part of your trip.

Day 5: Until We Meet Again!

Breakfast will be included on this final day, and transfers to area hotels or SeaTac airport will commence.
